

an advocate for increased No Child Left Behind funding. Additionally, he has promoted initiatives to increase the minimum wage and create a system of universal health care.

Congressman SWEENEY is someone whom I had the fortune to know in Albany and deserves recognition for his tireless service to the citizens of New York State. His accomplishments are felt from his northern upstate district down to the five boroughs of New York City. As Vice-Chairman of the Transportation, Treasury, and HUD Appropriations Subcommittee, JOHN has always been a reliable source of support for the state's small business owners and has championed projects facilitating growth and job development. As a Member representing Queens and the Bronx, I am also personally indebted to JOHN for his successful fight to secure over $21 billion in recovery aid for the people of New York City in the aftermath of the September 11 terrorist attacks on our city.

I also wish to highlight the achievements of Representative KELLY, and in particular, her work as a colleague of mine on the House Financial Services Committee. She has made large contributions to significant pieces of legislation such as the Sarbanes-Oxley bill that ensures greater corporate accountability and has led the battle to enforce corporate diligence by heading initial hearings into fraud cases involving Enron and WorldCom. Mrs. KELLY also merits appreciation for her efforts to achieve justice for Holocaust survivors by leading hearings regarding WWII restitution. I wish Representative KELLY well in future endeavors.

Mr. Speaker, I thank these Members for their distinguished service to this Congress and I wish them the sincerest of luck on their upcoming projects. New York State and this Congress are richer as a result of their contributions.

TRIBUTE TO REPRESENTATIVE SHERWOOD BOEHLERT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. CASTLE) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. CASTLE. Mr. Speaker, I also want to rise to extol the virtues of SHERRY BOEHLERT. I worked very hard on trying to write something out here. It took me a while to get this together. I am not quite as glib as the distinguished other gentleman from New York who spoke earlier, and I had to think long and hard about really good things to say about SHERRY as well. But I would just like to start by saying a few things.

One, he is I think the most affable person in the House of Representatives. There are a lot of us here, but he always did things with goodwill, with a good sense of humor. I am not remotely surprised that he didn't make enemies when he spoke or he took opposite positions, because he didn't do that with a vindictiveness, and he usually did it with facts behind what he was saying. So for that he deserves tremendous credit.

He has been an incredible advocate for centrist Republican positions. He and I have worked together on a variety of those issues, going to the highest levels in this House, sometimes to extend funding in certain circumstances, other times to fight legislation which was coming forward, and for that I will be eternally grateful.

He also is an environmentalist extraordinaire. He probably excels in that field as much as anybody in the House of Representatives, Republican or Democrat. He is knowledgeable. He had tremendous staff support. He carried out his convictions on the floor. He articulated the issues well.

I don't know of a single issue involving the environment in which probably 25 or 30 of us did not go to SHERRY and say exactly what do you think about this, and usually we voted the way he was thinking because of his extraordinary knowledge.

Now, I am saying nice things about him, but I should point out some downside. He is a Yankee fan. I don't know how that happens. I think people become Yankee fans because they are winners, and that is the reason he is a Yankee fan instead of a Mets fan or something of that nature. But he is there, and we will have to forgive him that.

He comes from a region of New York State, up around Utica. He lives in New Hartford, New York, which happens to be an area in which I spent 4 years going to Hamilton College. He and I graduated in the same year from different colleges; he, from Utica College, which we realized soon when we came down here together on the floor of the House of Representatives. But he has been my agent, telling me about Hamilton College all these years, and I appreciate that a great deal.

He also dedicated a science building there, as the head of the Science Committee recently, to great acclaim by the people at Hamilton and has a warm spot in his heart for that.

Moves significantly. He has a good part of his family, of his children, have now moved to Rehobeth Beach, Delaware, and he and Marianne are hopefully going to spend more time in the southern part of Delaware, which I consider to be very important. It is a beautiful spot. Everybody here should consider that, as a matter of fact, as part of their future. I hope that SHERRY will come there often and spend time there and we can enjoy his company at that spot.

I can't tell you how fair he has been. If you go to SHERRY with something, he will describe it to you, go back and forth, and, if he is with you, he is going to be on your side and he is the single greatest advocate you can possibly have.

There are many, many other things he has achieved, particularly as head of the Science Committee, dealing with the American Competitiveness Initiative, which he was slightly ahead of the President in terms of that area. In nanotechnology, he was a force in making sure that we have proper regulation in that area. The same thing is true of cybersecurity. He has been concerned about NASA all these years.

He has just done a wonderful job of representing the mid-part of New York State, an exceptional job over all of these years he has been in the Congress of the United States.

But I think far beyond that, for those of us who had a chance to know SHERRY and to work with him, to know his family, to know Marianne, to know what they stand for and how they are, he has the warmest embrace he could possibly have from all of us. He is an exceptional human being. And I am sure, since he is in good health and that he will be in Washington from time to time, that we will hear from him on a variety of issues. And I look forward to that moment, being able to hear from SHERRY as to what he is thinking, as to what is going on, keeping us informed on the outside and keeping us informed on the inside as to what we should be doing in minding our P's and Q's.

To a wonderful Member of the Congress of the United States, to a wonderful individual in the United States, I pay all the acclaim possible to my good friend SHERRY BOEHLERT.

(Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New York (Mr. KUH) is recognized for 5 minutes.

TRIBUTE TO DEPARTING FLORIDA MEMBERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. YOUNG of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise this evening to pay tribute to four of our Florida colleagues who will depart at the end of this 109th Congress.

CLAY SHAW, MIKE BILIRAKIS, JIM DAVIS, and KATHERINE HARRIS have all served our great state and our great Nation with passion and with pride. They have all left their own individual mark on this House as an institution, and I know they will be missed by all of our colleagues.

MIKE BILIRAKIS was my immediate neighbor as he represents the Ninth Congressional District of Florida just to my north. There is no member more beloved by his constituents than MIKE BILIRAKIS as they respect him as a man of character and integrity.

MIKE was not a member who scheduled press conferences or spoke often on the House floor. He did his work behind the scenes and was tenacious when seeing matters through to their conclusion. You only need to look at his efforts to provide concurrent receipt payments for our Nation's veterans who retired from military service with a disability. After more than a decade, his legislation was signed into law to solve this terrible inequity for so many veterans. Likewise, he fought tirelessly for veterans with spinal cord injuries to expand the spinal cord treatment unit at the Haley VA Hospital.

This is how he worked on the many other issues that were of special interest to him including health care, Medicare, seniors issues, or medical research. He took his work as Chairman of the Veterans Affairs Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations and the Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Health seriously and spent considerable time on the many legislative matters that fell within their jurisdiction.

Mr. Speaker, MIKE BILIRAKIS is a patriot and statesman and we will miss the quiet grace with which he and his wife Evelyn served the people of Florida. For me, I will especially miss him as a friend and confidant. They are a special couple who I wish all the best in their retirement years. And I know it is with great pride that they will watch as their son Gus is sworn-in next month to establish a new legacy of service in this House.

Mr. Speaker, I also rise to pay tribute to CLAY SHAW, the Chairman of our Florida delegation. He has done outstanding work over the past few years in keeping the 25 members of our delegation communicating and focusing on the needs of our large and growing state.

CLAY also has a distinguished record of legislative success in this House. He chaired three Subcommittees of the Ways and Means Committee, leaving behind an indelible stamp of success in many divergent areas. It was under his chairmanship that we passed and enacted sweeping welfare reform. He was a voice of reason as chairman of the Social Security Subcommittee as the Congress and our Nation has wrestled with the best approach to sure up the financial integrity of the Social Security Trust Funds. And in his latest assignment, he has advanced the issues of global trade and competitiveness as chairman of the Trade Subcommittee.

He has also been an unquestioned champion for our environment as he has been a leader in the restoration of the Everglades, the renourishment of Florida's beautiful beaches, and in fighting to prevent drilling for oil off Florida's coastline.

Mr. Speaker, in addition to his legislative successes, CLAY is also a personal inspiration as he and Emilie have worked together to represent our Nation, our state, and the 22nd district of Florida with great energy and integrity. Even two battles with lung cancer never slowed CLAY's drive to serve in this House as he never missed a step.

Our colleagues from Florida, those who served with him on the Ways and Means Committee, and all those who have come to know him over the past 26 years will miss CLAY and his easygoing yet thoughtful manner.

Mr. Speaker, KATHERINE HARRIS is one of our delegation's most junior members but quickly established herself as one of the hardest working members of this House. She has devoted her career to public service, having been elected to serve Florida as a State Senator, Secretary of State, and member of the House for the past four years representing the people of the 13th Congressional District.

Among her many legislative accomplishments in that short period of time were bills to create more affordable housing opportunities, to provide funding for a veterans cemetery in Sarasota, to restore equity in disability payments for veterans, and to spur free trade. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank KATHERINE for her service here and to wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, I want to pay tribute to JIM DAVIS, my colleague from the 11th District of Florida whom I share the City of St. Petersburg with and who has proudly represented the people of the Tampa Bay area for 10 years.

From his first days in office, JIM has always kept his focus on fiscal responsibility through his work on the Budget Committee. He also established himself as a leader on education issues, particularly in the recruitment in response to severe shortages in Florida and throughout the Nation.

As much as I will remember JIM for his legislative work, I will always remember the care with which he balanced his work here with his passion to spend time with his wife Peggy and their sons Peter and William. JIM found a way to manage the hectic schedule of the House with the need to be with his young sons as they have grown during his five terms here.

Mr. Speaker, the Florida Congressional Delegation has always worked well together in the best interests of the people of Florida. We may have had differences of opinion on national legislation, but we put those differences aside to work on Florida issues. With the departure of CLAY SHAW, MIKE BILIRAKIS, KATHERINE HARRIS, and JIM DAVIS, we lose four Members who have devoted themselves to this House and to our State. We will miss their service and their friendship but we will continue to carry on their commitment to serve with honor and distinction. In closing, I join with all my colleagues who will follow me this evening in wishing each of these Members the very best as they leave the people's House.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) is recognized for 5 minutes.

(Mr. UDALL of New Mexico addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

IN APPRECIATION OF DEPARTING FLORIDA MEMBERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. MARIO DIAZ-BALART) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. MARIO DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my appreciation for departing members of the Florida Congressional Delegation.

I am especially saddened that I will not see CLAY SHAW walking these halls or voting on this esteemed Floor next year. He is a class act, a true public servant who always demonstrated grace and decency. He has been a great mentor to me, and I can only hope that I can serve in Congress with the same honor CLAY SHAW did for 26 years. I know he will now have more time for his wonderful wife and his lovely family, but I also know that I will miss him dearly.

MIKE BILIRAKIS has earned his retirement from public service and I wish him well. Proverbs states that "A wise son maketh a glad father," and MIKE BILIRAKIS should be a very glad dad. I had the great pleasure of serving with his son Gus in the Florida State Legislature, and I look forward to working with him again in the 110th Congress.

No one can doubt that KATHERINE HARRIS loves Florida. Her family roots run deep in the Sunshine State, and no one is more proud of our great State than her. I am honored to have served with her both in the Florida Statehouse and in this distinguished Chamber. I wish her all the best.

FAREWELL TO FELLOW FLORIDA MEMBERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Florida (Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, I join my esteemed colleagues this evening in paying tribute to the Members of the Florida Congressional Delegation who will be departing this body at the end of this week—Representatives CLAY SHAW, MIKE BILIRAKIS, JIM DAVIS, and KATHERINE HARRIS.

It has been an honor and a privilege to work with such fine Americans throughout my tenure in Congress.

Therefore, it is with great sadness that I begin by paying homage to one of our greatest leaders in Congress, CLAY SHAW.

During his 25 years as a Member of Congress, CLAY has demonstrated outstanding service, dedication, hard work, devotion, and love for the American people and our wonderful State of Florida.

As dean of the Florida delegation, CLAY has been a confidant and trusted advisor to many of us.

From offshore drilling, to insurance regulation, to hurricane relief, CLAY has led the Delegation to ensure that we work together on the issues important to Floridians.

Our delegation will never be the same without CLAY at the helm.

We can only hope that our next leader will be of the same caliber and possess equal skills and resourcefulness.

It has been a true pleasure to serve with CLAY, and I know that the legacy of his contributions to this distinguished body will serve as an example for Members both present and future.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank my dear friend and colleague MICHAEL BILIRAKIS for his 24 years of service to our Nation.

During his time in Congress, MIKE has been a terrific spokesperson for his constituents, and they should be proud that he has served them with honor and distinction.
